

LEANNE CRAWFORD

Biography

From small Melbourne jazz bars and wonderful wineries to the highly-polished Grand Hyatt, Leanne has captivated and charmed some of the country's top-ranking companies and celebrities with her knock-out repertoire of smoky standards, upbeat jazz tunes and toe-tapping blues. As the preferred entertainer for 6 consecutive years at IBM corporate events, Elliot Goblet once described her as "Australia's best kept secret." But the secret is out....

Leanne held a long-standing residency at the Grand Hyatt, Sofitel and Rydges Hotels. As a singer and entertainer she has appeared at the Hyatt Regency, Queensland and was invited to perform at Dallas Brooks Hall and the Perth Concert Hall.

As much a storyteller as singer, she was inspired by dramatic narrative songs with a focus more on acting and emotion. Mesmerising on stage, Leanne transforms each song she performs into a theatrical experience, drawing her audience into a world of human connection and narrative. Moving and inspiring, this is her gift of theatre, cabaret and jazz music – this is Leanne Crawford's Jazzaret. Theatrical productions include her concert show "Temptation". Leanne has just completed a successful concert tour of South Western New South Wales.

Charismatic, glamorous and beguiling, Leanne's velvet yet powerful voice has complemented gala dinners, corporate events, weddings and special occasions throughout Australia.
